PAAVAI POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE, PACHAL

A STATE LEVEL TECHNICAL SYMPOSIUM 2K17

VENUE: VISVESWARAYA HALL   DATE : 08.02.17

                                                          TIME : 10:00 a.m.

A State Level Technical symposium was organized by Paavai Polytechnic College. Students from various institutions participated and presented their papers. Smt. Mangai Natarajan, Correspondent of Paavai Institutions lighted the kuthuvilakku and   presided over the function.

Shri N. Asoka, Managing Director, M/s SPARK ENGINEERS PVT LTD., Salem, was the Chief Guest. The Correspondent, in her presidential address told that Polytechnic education must be given importance all over the world to create industrial revolution. Symposium is the opportunity to expose potentials and acquire knowledge beyond the syllabus from various resources. In our Polytechnic College, students should give more importance for Technical based Learning. Self Esteem is very important to build up basic foundation and better improvement. Students should concentrate on their communication not only the fluency in English but also making stress and pause to make the listeners for better understanding. Industrial development depends upon the Polytechnic Institutions. Finally, she wished the students for their success.

The Chief Guest inaugurated the function and delivered the inaugural address. In his speech, he told that every student should work hard for the betterment of successful life. He asked the students to participate in this kind of symposium which is a platform to exhibit their knowledge. He also shared the industrial experience among the students. These kinds of Symposium motivate the students to exhibit the hidden talent. He also added that most of the industrial sectors expect only the leadership quality and not the technical quality. He also said that globalization helps us to expand the market for our product with more quality and less price to all over the world. He advised the students to learn the culture of different countries in the world. He told that good communicator must be a good listener. He stressed the three qualities such as Lead, Connect and Serve. Finally, he wished all the students success and released the Technosium 2K17 Souvenir CD.
